

07:45-08:15	Registration and breakfast
08:15-08:20	Session 1 - What is the challenge? Welcome	Lasse Bremholm
08:20-08:40	THE PATIENT: Two patients presenting their experiences going through treatment for colon cancer
08:40-09:05	THE ANESTHESIOLOGIST: The high risk patient in cancer surgery	Bernhard Riedel
09:05-09:30	THE RADIOLOGIST: State-of-the-art clinical staging of the patient with colon cancer	TBA
09:30-10:00	Coffee break and Exhibition
10:00-12:15	Session 2 - Live Surgery Case presentations OR1: Right-sided colon cancer surgery (CME with Intracorporeal Anastomosis) OR2: Left-sided colon cancer surgery (CME with use of quantitative ICG perfusion) OR3: Combined endoscopic laparoscopic technique for colon cancer	Ismail Gögenur
12:15-13:15	Lunch and Exhibition
13:15-13:40	Session 3 - What is the solution? ERAS Version 3.0: AI in perioperative care	Ismail Gögenur
13:40-14:05	Surgery in Stage I-III: Complete mesocolic excision	Anders Bertelsen
14:05-14:30	Surgery in Stage IV: Primary tumor resection	Per Nilsson
14:30-14:55	Chemotherapy: Adjuvant treatment for the colon cancer 'prime-time'?	Dion Morton
14:55-15:05	Panel discussion
15:05-15:30	Coffee break and Exhibition
15:30-15:40	Session 4 - Where to go in the future Reflections from the surgical teams	Surgeons from OR1-3
15:40-16:05	Designing the right trials in the future to improve outcomes: The Netherlands experience	Pieter Tanis
16:05-16:30	The role of the microbiome in treating patients with colon cancer	Philip Quirke
16:30-16:55	New avenues in the oncological treatment of colon cancer	Camilla Qvortrup
16:55-17:00	Closing remarks	Lasse Bremholm
17:00-18:00	Drinks and Networking	